Japanese Fusion Plate: Edamame & Barley Soup + Grilled Saba (low odor version)

Edamame & Barley Soup + Foil-Steamed Saba with Ginger and Lemon

Ingredients

Soup (side, 4 servings):

- Shelled edamame – 200 g
- Pearl barley – 80 g dry
- Carrot – 1 small, diced
- Onion – ½ medium, diced
- Olive oil – 1 tsp
- Water – 800 ml
- Coconut aminos – 1 T (15 ml)
- Miso – 1 T (15 g)

Saba (main, 2 servings):

- Saba fillets – 2 (≈220 g total)
- Olive oil – 1 tsp
- Pepper – to taste
- Lemon wedge or grated daikon

Instructions

Soup:

1. Sauté onion + carrot in oil. Add barley + water, simmer 30–35 min.
2. Stir in edamame, cook 5 min. Remove from heat, dissolve miso, adjust seasoning.

Saba (main, 2 servings)

- 2 saba fillets (≈220 g total)

- 1 tsp olive oil or sesame oil
- 1 tsp grated ginger (チューブ OK)
- 1 T sake
- 2 thin lemon slices
- ½ tsp soy sauce (optional, or coconut aminos)
- Green onions or grated daikon for garnish

Instructions:

1. Place each saba fillet on a square of foil or parchment. Brush lightly with oil.
2. Top with grated ginger, lemon slices, and drizzle of sake + soy.
3. Seal tightly and bake/steam at 200 °C for 15 min in your small oven.
4. Open foil, sprinkle green onions or daikon. Serve hot.

✅ Odor control: virtually no smell escapes the foil; cleanup is quick.

Saba no Miso-Steam with Vegetables

(鯖の味噌ホイル蒸し)

(2 servings)

Ingredients

- 2 saba fillets (≈220 g)
- 2 Tbsp sake
- 1 Tbsp miso
- 1 tsp mirin
- ½ tsp soy sauce or coconut aminos
- 1 tsp ginger paste
- ½ carrot, julienned
- 2 shiitake mushrooms, sliced
- ½ onion, thinly sliced
- 1 tsp sesame oil

Instructions

1. Mix miso, sake, mirin, soy, and ginger into a paste.
2. Place vegetables and fish on a piece of foil, spoon sauce on top.
3. Drizzle sesame oil and seal tightly.
4. Bake at 200 °C for 18 min or pan-steam with a lid on medium-low for 12–14 min.
5. Open carefully and serve with a small bowl of rice.

✓ Flavor: rich, comforting, classic Japanese umami.

✓ Odor: minimal—ginger + miso neutralize fishy notes.
